

WILKES COUNTY HALL OF FAME BOARD & ADVISORY MEMBERS

2019-2020 Board Members

2020-2021 New Board & Advisory Members

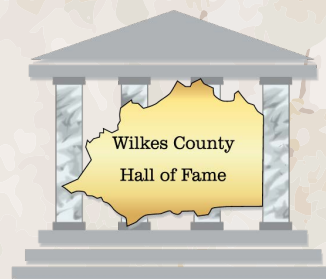

JAMES COOK LEADERSHIP BREAKFAST

The Wilkes County Hall of Fame began the WCHOF Youth Leadership Breakfast in 2018. After the loss of a former board member, the breakfast was renamed to the James Cook Leadership Breakfast in his memory. Student leaders from all Wilkes County middle and high schools attend the annual event for breakfast, and words of inspiration from Wilkes County Hall of Fame inductees.

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Morgan Mathis
Wilkes County Hall of Fame
613 Cherry Street
North Wilkesboro, NC 28659
336-667-1121
mathismo@wilkes.k12.nc.us

FOLLOW US!

Wilkescountyhalloffame.org

@WilkesCountyHallofFame

WILKES COUNTY HALL OF FAME

The mission of the Wilkes County Hall of Fame is to promote and honor the excellence of the people in Wilkes County in order to encourage and inspire the youth and citizens of Wilkes to strive for similar excellence in life's endeavors. By presenting significant and powerful role models, the Wilkes County Hall of Fame is a source of learning, inspiration, and hope for youth.

CLASS OF 2020

DWIGHT DAVID BECK

DENNIS M. HUGGINS

ANDREW FRANKLIN KILBY

THE KRUGER
BROTHERS

JAMES WILBER COOK

JOHN & ETTA IDOL

WARD H. NICHOLS

TAMMY ELLER WHITWORTH

SAVE THE DATE

The eighth annual WCHOF gala is
May 19, 2022

The Wilkes County Hall of Fame was created to recognize citizens that have made invaluable contributions to Wilkes County and the world beyond.

Nominees for the Wilkes County Hall of Fame may fall into any of the following categories:

- Arts and Entertainment-renowned performers, musicians, actors, actresses, poets, authors and any who work in a related field.
- Enterprise-great contributors in the fields of science, medicine, business and philanthropy.
- Sports-superior athletes, coaches, officials and administrators in the world of sports.
- Leadership-accomplished people who may not fit into the above categories, e.g. educators, military leaders.

Candidates must meet the following criteria:

- The nominee must be/have been a legal resident or contributed substantially to Wilkes County.
- The nominee must have made broad and lasting contributions to the betterment of the county or brought recognition to the county through their accomplishments.
- The nominee must be of exemplary character and reputation.

Nominations are accepted each year until January 31st to be considered for the newest class. Once an individual is nominated, they stay nominated. Additional documents to supplement existing applications are welcomed. Visit our website to complete a nomination form:
Wilkescountyhalloffame.org

Wilkes County Schools is proud to be the home of the Wilkes County Hall of Fame. Your support would help us fulfill our mission of providing resources and opportunities to students of all grade levels. In February 2021, we granted our largest amount of funding to date totaling $19,905.22.

2020 WCHOF GRANTS

We hope you choose to partner with us on this community mission!